Thank You

The Class of 2006 would like to extend its sincere gratitude to several amazing individuals without whom our high school experience would not have been so memorable. To our class advisors, Mr. Meyer and Mr. Gannon, thank you for your hard work and dedication. We know it wasn't always easy!

To Mr. Hastings, you've been far more than just a principal. You've motivated and inspired us to pursue all of our goals (even if we gave you and Mrs. Kach a hard time).

To Mr. Mercado and Mrs. DiMeco, thank you for helping us make our dreams for the future a reality. None of our accomplishments would have been possible without your guidance and "passes."

Last but certainly not least, we thank our yearbook advisor Mr. Garrity for his humor, tolerance, and wisdom, without which we would not have learned that "if the shoe fits, it didn't come from Sears." This edition of Memorabilia was a success because of your help.

To the school's faculty and administration, you left a lasting impression on us and have influenced the people we will become. Thank you for all that you have instilled in us over the last four years.

2002-2003

We entered high school in September, 2002, as a group of energetic students eager to face the next chapter in our education. Unaware of the challenges that we would face over the next four years, we clung to the friendships we had known in middle school while forming new ties with upperclassmen. As freshmen, we proved to be a unique group of individuals who always came together when it was important. Some of our classmates experienced playing in the only super bowl of our high school career, which was also the end of Clinton's four year dynasty. To the surprise of the entire school we placed second in spirit week, setting the tone for future years. Mr. Gannon and Mr. Meyer stepped up to take the role of our class advisors while our class elected Jenna Cardoza as president, Katie Wong as Vice President, Sissy Irvine as Secretary, and April Smith as Treasurer.

2003-2004

As sophomores we again proved our class unity in coming from behind to win an extremely competitive spirit week. In winning the food drive, we displayed our willingness to help others, and we faced academic challenges unmatched in any previous year. Athletically, the class of 2006 provided important members for several successful teams, with many of our classmates being named league all stars. We again elected Jenna Cardoza, Katherine Wong, and Catherine Irvine as officers with the only change in Deepti Sreepathi being elected Class Treasurer. As we began to realize that high school was already half over, we turned towards making plans for homecoming and prom and looked forward to adopting our new roles as school leaders.

2004-2005

As we started our junior year, we reelected President Jenna Cardoza, Vice President Katie Wong, Secretary Sissy Irvine, and voted in a new Treasurer, Shane McCarthy. Throughout the year we revived activities such as March Madness volleyball and interclass dramatics, adding new excitement to our time at Clinton High. Our homecoming was a great success as were the junior prom and after prom party. As upperclassmen we proved able to support and encourage each other especially in sports. Several of our teams broke school records and demonstrated talent and leadership. As reigning spirit week champions, we took first place for the second year in a row. With junior year coming to an end, we realized that the final leg of our high school career lay ahead of us, and with this realization came the excitement for things to come.

2005-2006

This year's spirit week was full of competition from all grades, especially in the rivalry between the seniors and juniors. We started the week moving back and forth between third and fourth place. Going into the weekend, the seniors were losing by a large deficit. Sunday was the girls' powder puff football game and "Bring It On" boys cheerleading competition. We swept both events, boosting us into second place. By the time the rally came, the juniors were in first, and the seniors were right on their heels. The seniors won all but one event but came up short in the final tally. This proved to be closest spirit week of all. The rest of our senior year was filled with social and academic events, all of which we entered enthusiastically in our attempts to enjoy our final go-around at Clinton High. The future that had seemed so distant was suddenly upon us, and it was time to make decisions about our post-high school plans. We formed long-lasting ties and certainly made the most of our endeavors, from sports to music to FIRST. In our last year, we again elected President Jenna Cardoza, Vice President Katie Wong, Secretary Sissy Irvine, and Treasurer Shane McCarthy.

Spirit Week

Our final spirit week started poorly as we shifted between third and fourth place. However, we started our comeback on the weekend when the girls won the powder puff football game and the boys took the Boys' Only cheerleading competition.

We showed our superiority at the rally by winning seven of the nine events held that day. We won Class Decorations, Thanksgiving Basket, Class Officers Race, Scooter Board Race, Relay Race, Tug of War, and the Obstacle Course. We also finished second in the Class Banner and the three-point shot.

Our domination of the rally almost brought us victory for the third year in a row, but we just fell short.

Junior Prom

On the evening of May 14, 2005, our Junior Prom became a reality. Upon arriving at the Royal Plaza Hotel in Fitchburg, the red carpet was rolled out, and our "Night in Hollywood" began.

After savoring a delightful dinner, we danced and enjoyed ourselves until the highlight of the evening occurred: the selection of the queen and king. Jenna Cardoza and Chris Nanof received the honors.

We finished our night at the Greendale YMCA with our post-prom party. Our big event was a truly wonderful way to end junior year.

Queen and Her Court — (L.-R.) Shaiska Santiago, Colleen St. Cyr, Tara Martin, Queen Jenna Cardoza, Sissy Irvine, Jess Wong, and Jacsiell Cavallo.

Interclass Dramatics

During our senior year we entered the one-act play competition with a play written by one of our very own, Sam Ike, Jr. The play was set in the 80's and based on the historic rivalry between Clinton and Nashoba. After taking first place in the competition our junior year, we were eager to defend our title. We ended the play in a grand finale "dance off" in a girls vs. boys fashion to Michael Jackson's "Beat It". Although we didn't take first place this year, we had a great time, and the audience interacted with us greatly and enjoyed the show.

Homecoming

The homecoming dance was held at the Clinton Town Hall on October 23, 2004. We decorated in black, silver, and gold, and danced the night away. This was also the night of game one of the 2004 World Series, and a crowd of elegantly dressed fans gathered around a large screen in the lobby, as the Red Sox began the effort that would lead them to their first championship in 86 years. The entire night was filled with music, excitement, and fun, and it would prove to be one of the most memorable experiences of our time at CHS.

King and Court (L.-R.) Keith Watimar, Joseph Vazquez, Jose Valez, Kyle McElheney, Samuel Ike, and King Shane McCarthy

Senior Hop

Our Senior Hop was held on March 18, 2006, with a St. Patrick's Day theme. Although the turnout was small, those in attendance enjoyed themselves. The highlight came with the announcement of Krista Duchnowski as queen and Angel Martinez as King. The class came together singing "Heroes in Low Places" making it one of our most memorable times as seniors.

King and His Court (L.-R.) Gunnar Benson, Jonny Litterio, Jon Hart, Zak Wallace, and Kin Angel Martinez. Missing — Jeff Rice.

Gael Force opened its season at the UTC New England Regional in Hartford. Team 126 was ranked first among the forty competitors. With a combination of teams from New York and Connecticut, the alliance easily won its quarterfinal match but was defeated in the semifinals when a defensive robot slammed into it, causing a wire to pop off which did not allow the team to shoot balls. However, the team took home the Motorola Quality Award and the Johnson and Johnson Sportsmanship Award.

The next competition was the Boston Regional. Although encountering a number of technical issues, the team earned the second seed following the qualification rounds. In the elimination round, Team 126 with its partners from Worcester and Florida won its quarterfinal round but after leading in the semifinal, the alliance lost its last two matches and was eliminated. Again, the team took home awards. The first was the Entrepreneurship Award, and the second was the Woodie Flowers Award given to Mr. Jim Brodrick who was chosen as an outstanding mentor.

The national competition took place in Atlanta, Georgia. After an impressive showing in the practice rounds, the Gael Force and its alliance members, both from Florida, teamed to dominate its quarterfinal round, winning two straight matches. In the semifinals, the alliance won its first match but lost the next two and was eliminated.

The team had a great year and enjoyed its wrap party on Saturday and its visit to the Georgia Aquarium on Sunday.

Football

Bouncing back from a disappointing season, the Gaels had expectations for a super bowl berth. Going into the Oakmont game, the team had a 3-2 record. At half-time they came off the field trailing 10-0. In the second half, Clinton scored fourteen unanswered points. But, with 20 seconds remaining in the game, the Spartans got off a long pass that allowed them to score on the next play. The loss proved to be a learning experience because they realized that more team work was necessary. As underdogs in the next two games, the squad defeated both Ayer and Hudson by considerable scores. In what was suspected to be coach's last game, the Gaels defeated Maynard on Thanksgiving. Players honored after the game were Justin Bailey for MVP of the game, Kyle Grady for Offensive Player of the Year, Joey Vazquez for Defensive Player of the Year, and Chris Nieves for MVP of the Year. The League All-Stars were Justin Bailey, Joey Vazquez, Jon Hart, Chris Nieves, and Shane McCarthy. The Telegram and Gazette All-Stars were Justin Bailey, Joey Vazquez, Jon Hart, and Tim Draleau.

Cross Country

It was an extremely difficult year for the Cross Country team with only nine members on the squad. Led by Coach Mark Allard, the team was able to pull off only one win but managed many close meets. The team was headed by seniors Mike Vickers and Gunnar Benson. Despite their record (1-9), they can consider the season a success because they made many improvements as a team and hope for better results in the future. Junior Todd Sowa was named to the Mid-Wach C All-Star team.

Although the volleyball team went 0-18 this year, they did have the largest number of girls ever. Under Janet Carey's direction and Captain April Smith and Alyssa Kirby's leadership, the Lady Gaels brought several teams to a fifth match before succumbing by a few points.

Persistence, enthusiasm, and motivation were the norm for this squad. With seniors Shaiska Santiago, a consistent server, and April Smith, a Mid-Wach All Star, setting great examples for future Lady Gaels.

This year's soccer team had a great season. They achieved a commendable record of 7-7-2 under Coach Adam Ingano and tri-captains, John Hooper, C. J. McNamara, and Moyses Franco. They led the Gaels to a five-game winning streak which landed them in the District Tournament for the second consecutive season. Unfortunately, they lost their first tournament game to Oxford by a score of 2-0. Hooper scored several goals throughout the season, and McNamara set up plays and had numerous assists. Franco played all positions on the field and contributed greatly to the team's offense. The Central Mass All-Stars were Manny Foureau, Yuri Silva, and Hugo Ortega.

The team was led by Senior Captains Tim Draleau and Jeff Rice. Consistency on the offensive end of the court was the downfall for the Gaels.

Jeff Rice and Oscar Diaz were selected as Mid-Wach C All-Stars. Other awards were given to Seniors Woody Mayard and Steve Crispin for the Sixth Man of the year and the Most Inspirational Player, respectively.

Girls' Basketball

In one of the most successful seasons in recent history, the Lady Gaels finished its difficult regular season schedule with a 14-6 record under Coach Bernie Gaughan. With a team of only eight players, the Gaels overcame illness and injury to capture second place in the Mid-Wach C division and qualify for the postseason.

After a three-way tie in the Central Massachusetts Division 2 Districts bracket, the Gaels unfortunately lost a coin toss to earn a number five seed. Lacking in height but more than making up for that with speed, the squad faced Millbury but due to early foul trouble lost its quarterfinal game 63-50.

Representing Clinton as league All-Stars were Shanna Gadoua, Ally Mack, and Erin Peete. Audrey Hazel and Nicky Ramig competed in the free-throw and 3-point contests, respectively.

The team started the season with four straight wins, but from there, it was an up and down year. In the tournament the eighth seeded Gaels faced the ninth seed, Blackstone-Millville and defeated them in a dramatic extra inning victory when MaryBeth Ball hit a walk off home run for a 1-0 win. In the next round Clinton lost to number one seed Grafton by a score of 2-0.

Boys' Track

Coach Vanasse's team went 4-3 in a rain-shortened season and finished in fourth place at the league meet. The squad was led by senior Captains Zack Wallace and Patrick Nelson and seniors Gunnar Benson, Jon Hart, Sam Ike, and Woody Mayard.

Ten members of the team qualified for the Districts, including all of the seniors and juniors Joel Cosme, Mike Daley, and Billy Fitzgerald, and sophomore Gordon Daniels. The Gaels finished tied for seventh place. Wallace, Hart, and Fitzgerald moved on to the State Qualifier.

Girls' Track

The team led by Captains Ashley Gordon, Jenna Cardoza, and April Smith finished the season with a 1-6 record but had many outstanding individual and team performances. Allie Miller, Rosa DeLeon, Alicia Gordon, and Casey McGown set a school record in the 4x400 relay.

Boys' Volleyball

The team led by Captains Kyle McElheney and Hugo Ortega experienced an up and down season finishing with a record of 9-11 as they just missed the Districts by losing their final match of the season to South High. Uwezo Hume and Maryo Bruno contributed greatly. McElheney was the leader in serving points followed by Ortega and Hume. Ortega was selected as a league All Star.

Tennis

The team had a very successful season under Coach Moisan finishing with a 6-10 record which was the highest total in the school's history. Captains Lauren Kilcoyne, Krista Duchnowski, and Abigail Wankyo along with seniors Henrietta Nyaigoti and Shaiska Santiago helped the squad reach this goal. The team's hard work and determination were shown when they were awarded the Mid-Wach League Sportsmanship Award.

National Honor Society

The senior members of the National Honor Society welcomed new members at the annual induction ceremony. The graduating members were recognized for their achievements over the past four years and NHS officers spoke to the incoming sophomores and juniors about the four tenets of the society. The incoming speakers were Principal Hastings, Superintendent Caw and Cynthia Dziurgot, President of the Chatham Rotary Club which sponsors the local chapter of the National Honor Society. Angel Martinez, this year's historian, served as master of ceremonies. Chris Nanof lit the candle symbolizing the keystone and flame of NHS. Vice President Lauren Kilcoyne then spoke about the first tenet, character, followed by President Krista Duchnowski's speech on leadership. Secretary Pat Nelson discussed scholarship, and Treasurer Tim Draleau closed with an explanation of the importance of service. After the ceremony, the Rotary Club hosted a banquet for the seniors at the Chocksett Inn.

The Last Day of School

On Friday, May 26, 2006, our odyssey through the Clinton School System came to an end. The journey which began in September, 1993, was filled with excitement, happiness, tragedy, disappointment, and finally, graduation.

We began as strangers and ended as friends. The road which seemed so long at times was finally completed with a flourish as we met at Shaw's for our last official trip to CHS.

To our parents, teachers, and friends who have aided our progress and development, we thank you. We hope to justify your confidence in us.

Class Banquet

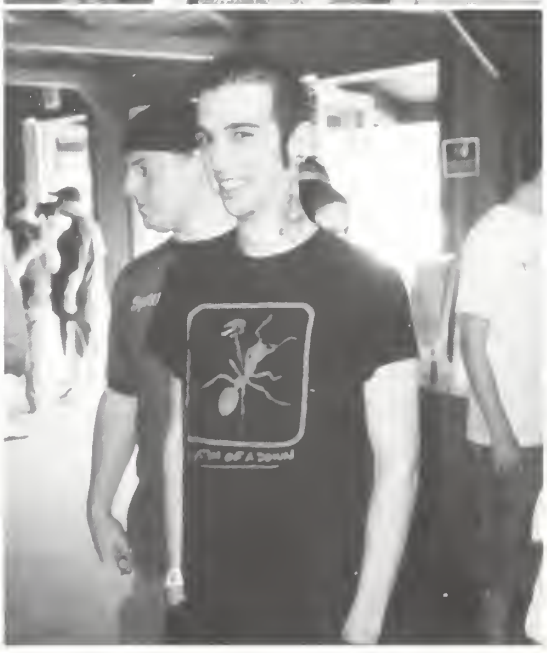
On June 1 the class held its banquet at the Bull Run Restaurant in Shirley. Dressed for what was the class' last dance, everyone enjoyed a great meal and the good company. Many tributes were made, including the song "We're Not Gonna Take It," which was dedicated to the teachers and administrators who looked on with interest throughout the evening. The DJ played a song for the senior girls who had just advanced in the Districts for the first time in their four years. On the ride home chants of "06" erupted as we remembered four great years and looked forward to graduation in two days.

Class Trip

On Tuesday, May 30, the seniors enjoyed a fantastic day at Hop Meadows Resort in Granby, Connecticut. Under clear blue skies and with eleven [illegible] schools, we competed in basketball, softball, tennis and volleyball games. Others spent time at the swimming pool, horseback riding, rock climbing, and bungee jumping.

The constantly changing all-day buffet was a highlight as a variety of foods was consumed by all.

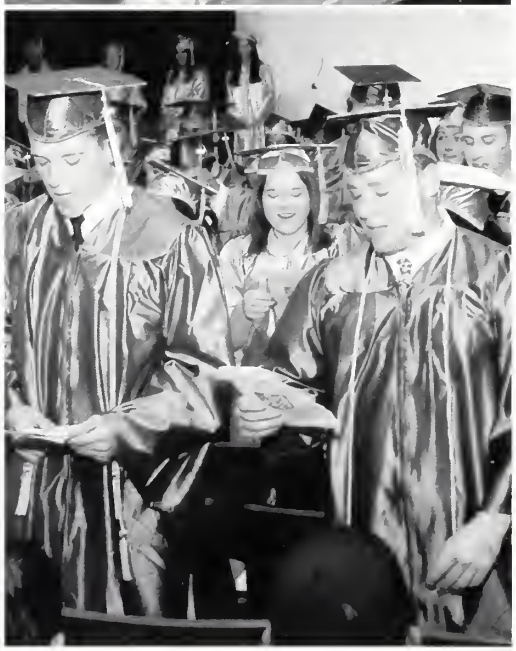
When we boarded the buses at the end of the day, we were tired but had some great memories to carry with us.



Baccalaureate

Baccalaureate [illegible] May 31 in the auditorium. It was [illegible] reflection of our high school [illegible] Kyle McElheney received the [illegible] Arts and Humanities [illegible] Patrick Nelson received [illegible] Student Achievement Award. [illegible] Meagan McCaffrey addressed [illegible] how her experiences in high school and college have played a significant role in her life. She advised us to not be afraid of taking risks and explained the importance of finding passions and pursuing them.

Jenna Cardoza presented a slideshow containing pictures of many events from our four years. The class sang "Ain't No Mountain High Enough," which was then followed by a reception in the cafeteria.

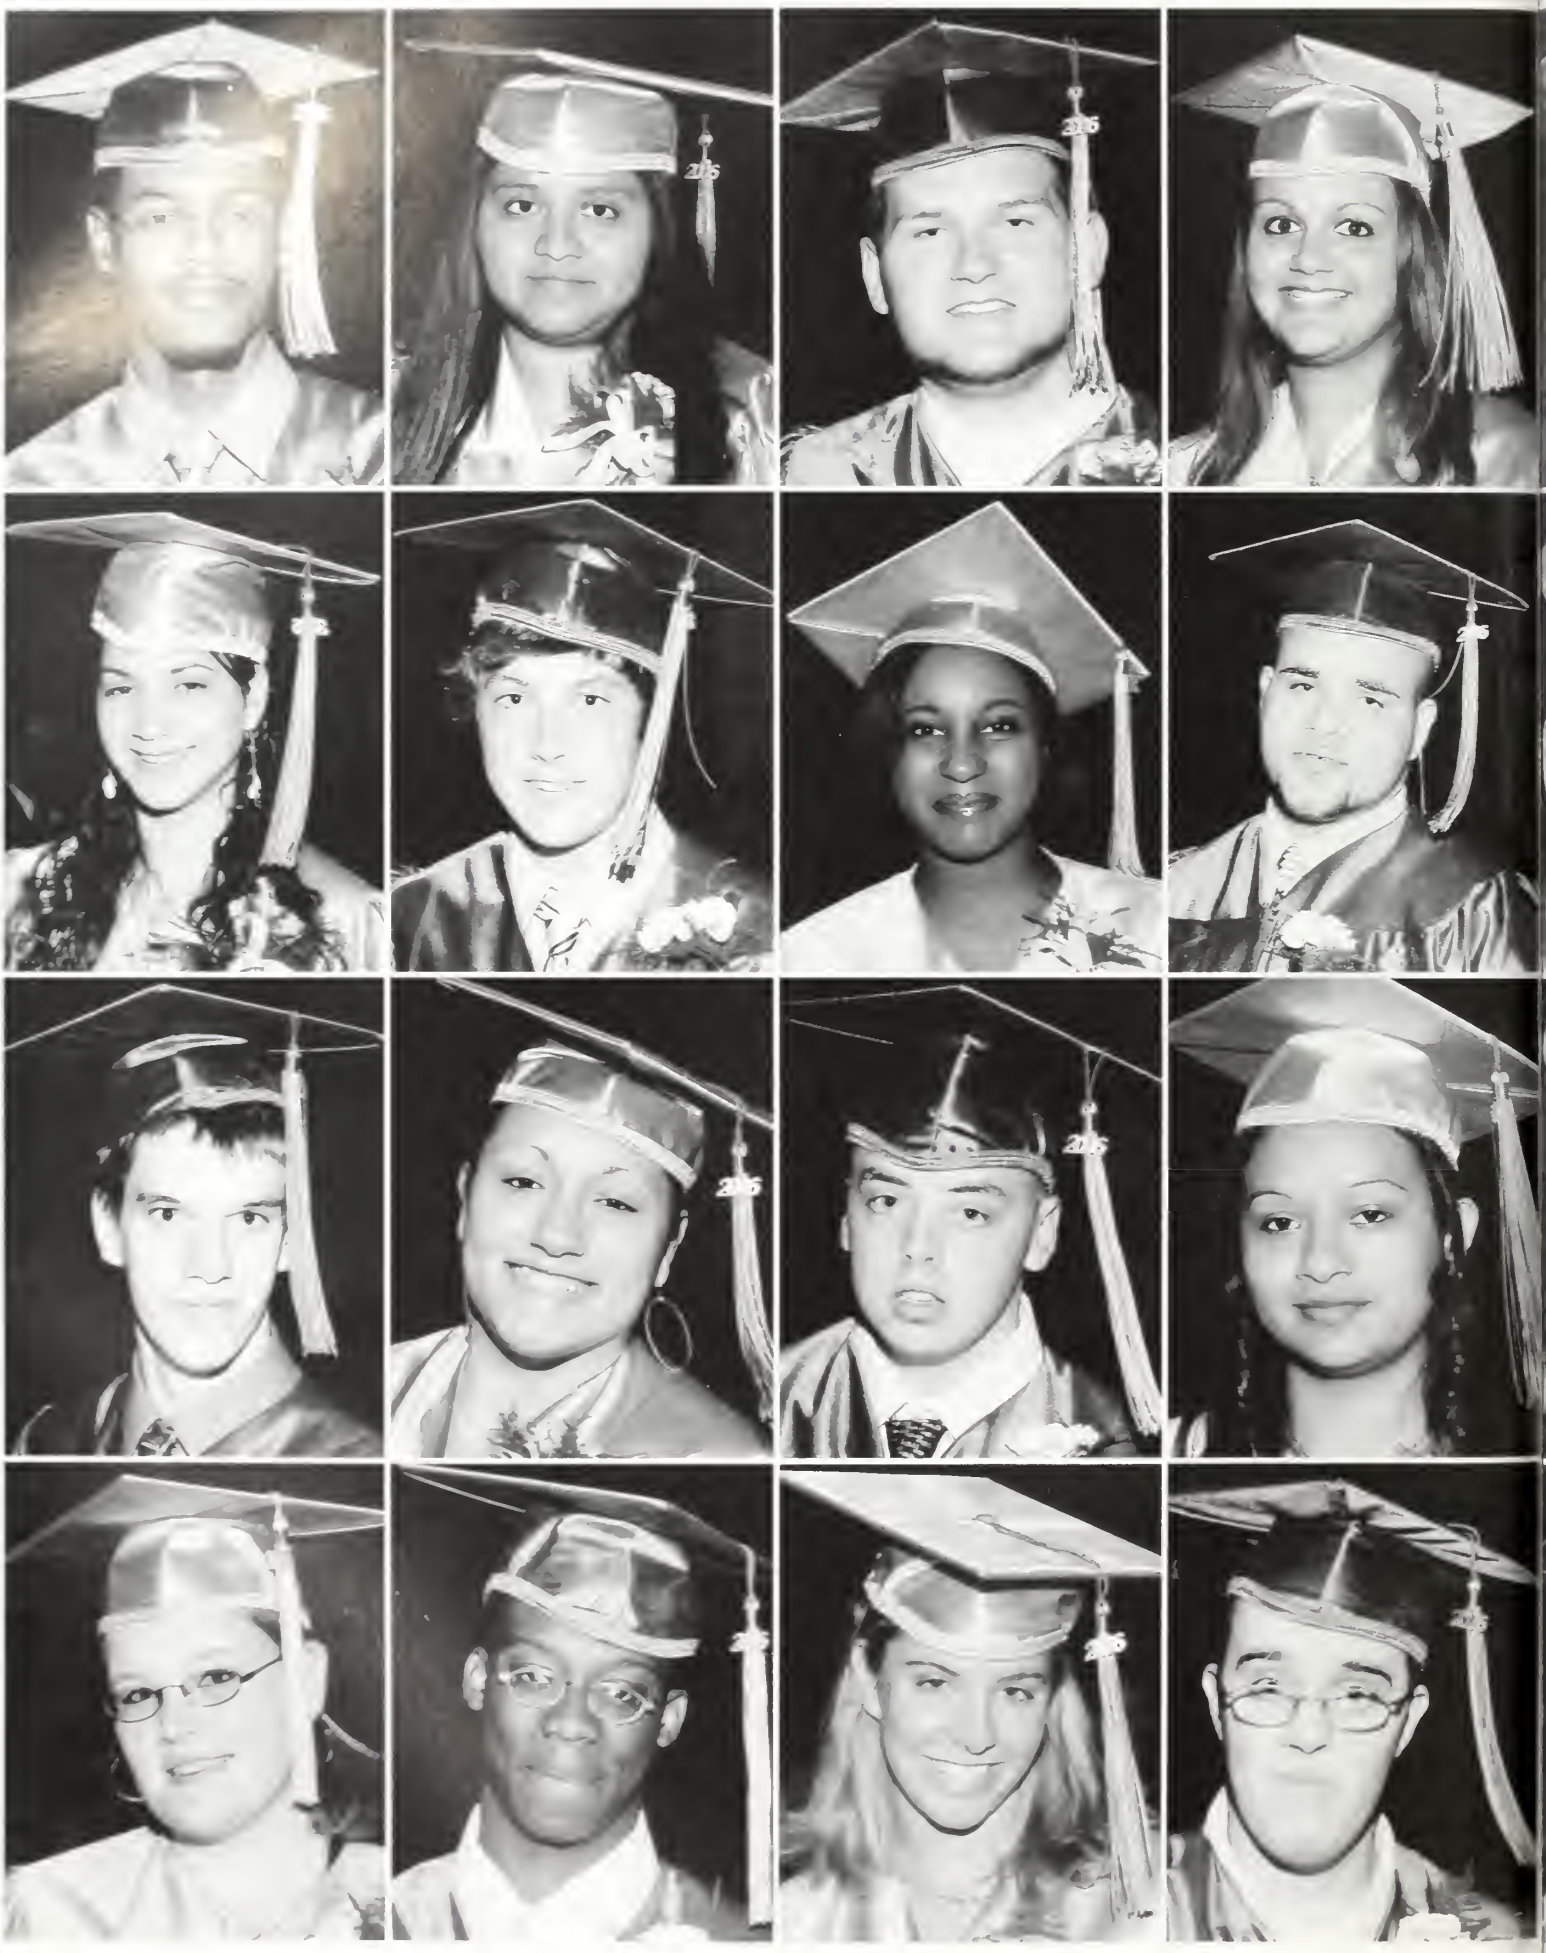


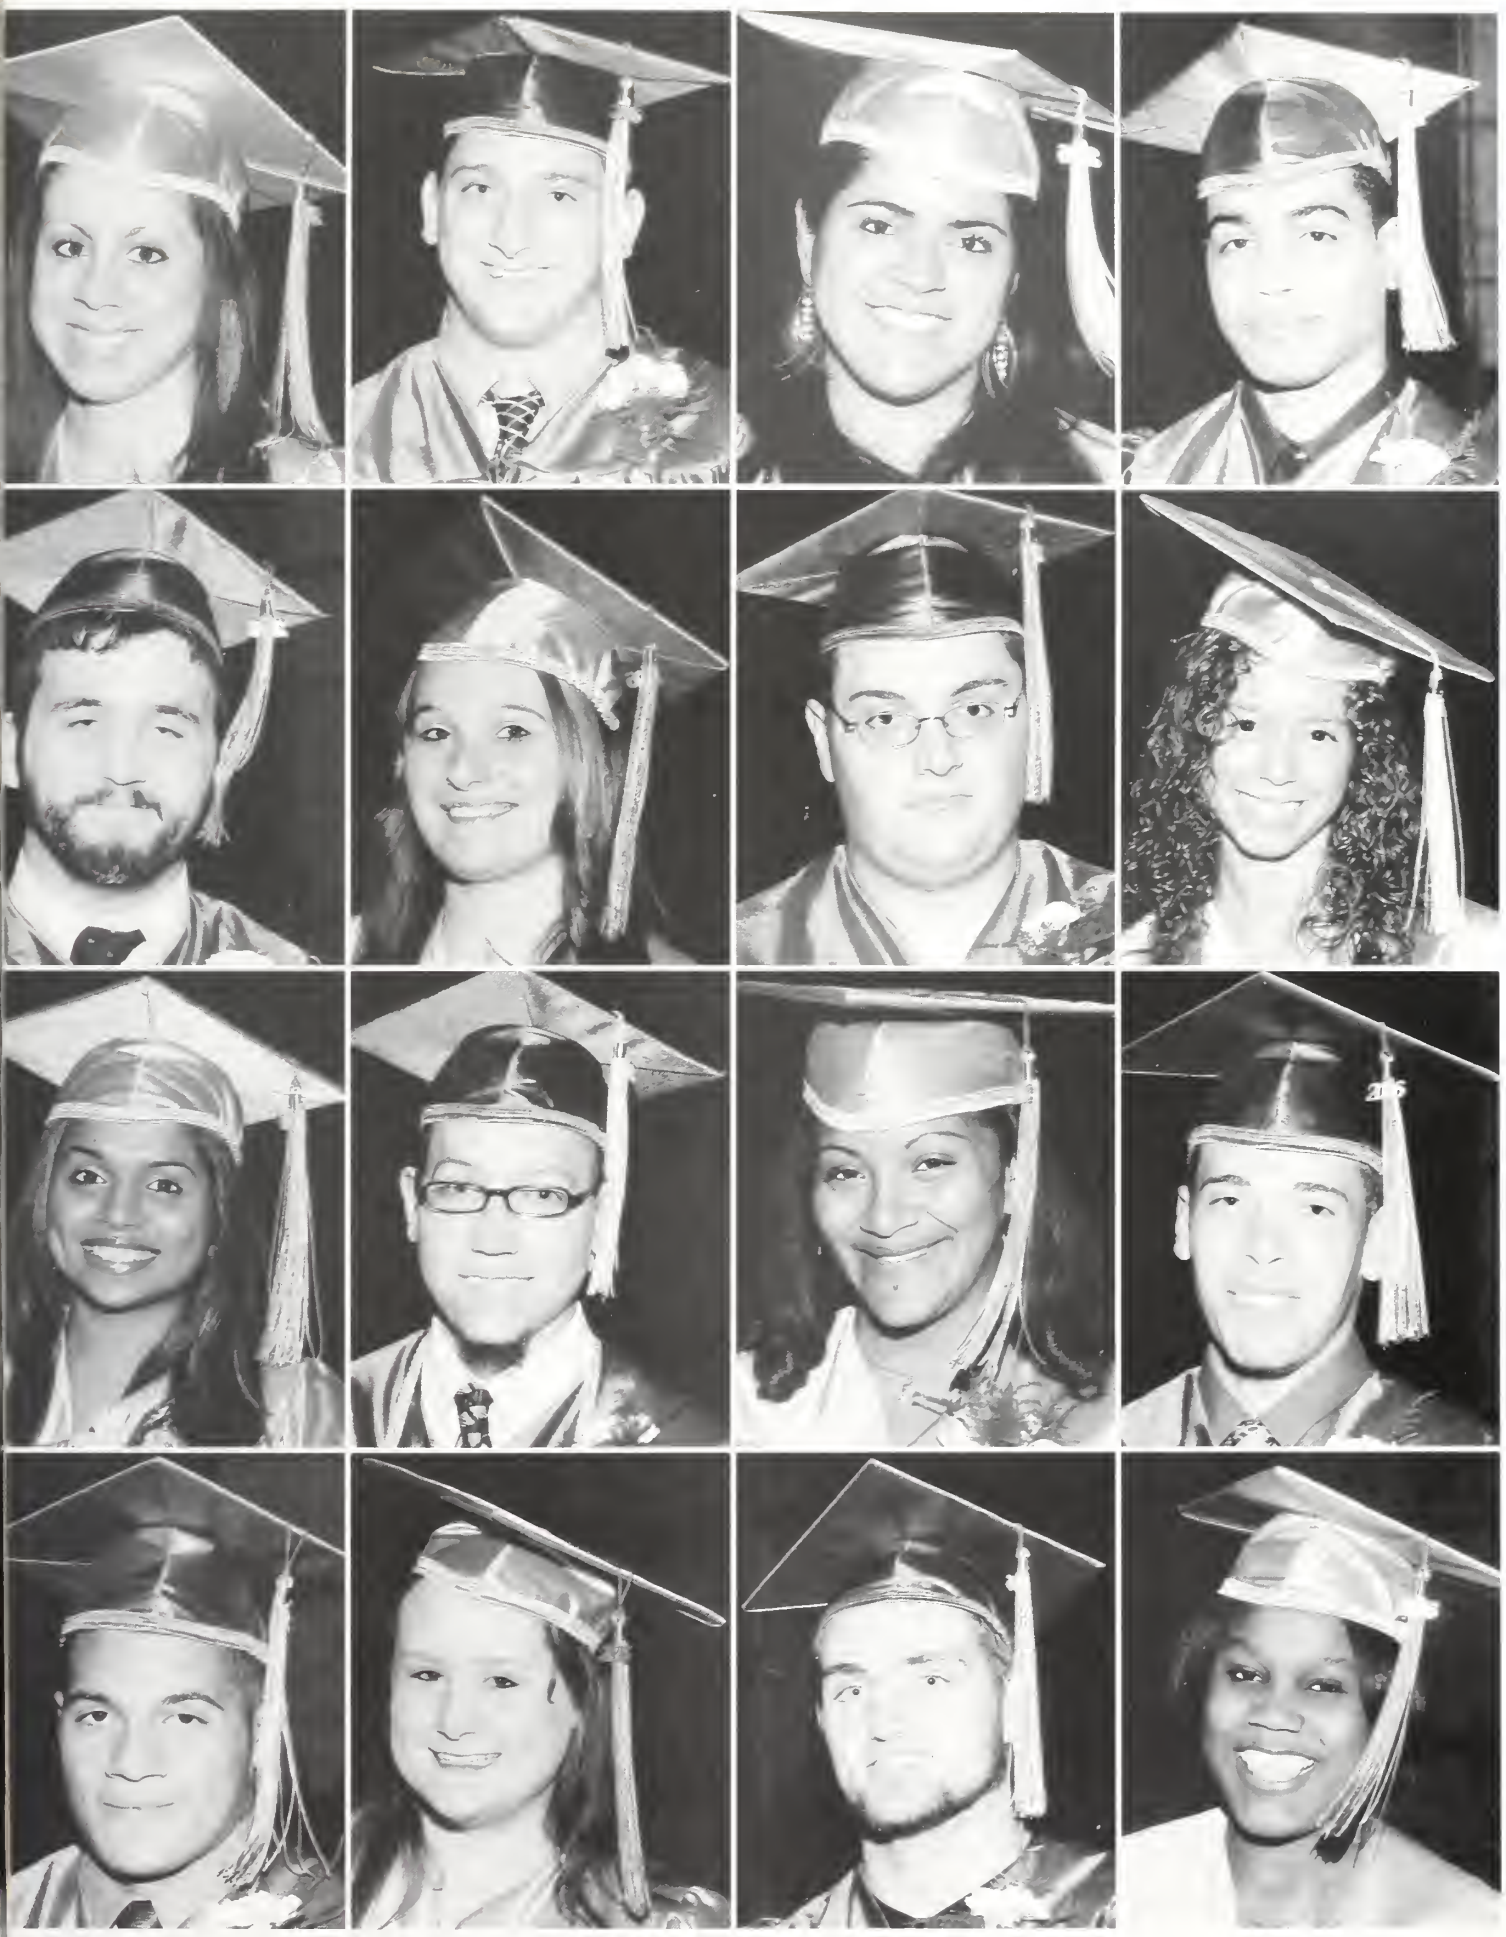
Graduation

On June 3 the [illegible] could not dampen our spirits as our families and friends packed the Town Hall. Following [illegible] we sang the "Star Spangled Banner" and presented [illegible] class gift to Marlle Vetros, the [illegible]. President Jenna Cardoza's opening [illegible] reminded us of what was accomplished [illegible] would be remembered. Superintendent [illegible] quoted a passage that detailed the advice of parents and paid tribute to the Class of 1956 which was celebrating its reunion.

Valedictorian Patrick Nelson, High Honor students Lauren Kileoyne, Krista Duchnowski, and Angel Martinez reminisced about our high school years and offered advice and encouragement.

Principal Hastings spoke of our ability to stand together in the face of adversity. After the presentation of scholarships and diplomas, we sang "Green and Gold," celebrated with each other, and looked excitedly toward the future.





Best wishes for a safe, healthy and prosperous future from your friends at Clinton Hospital.

Something that is your dream
You owe it to yourself, to make your days count

Love Always Mom & Dad

[illegible]ey,

Be who you are and say what you feel, because those who mind don't matter, and those who matter don't mind.

As a future Interior Designer, we know that your rainbow is waiting for you on the other side. Don't stop until you see its many colors.

Love,
Aunt Jo Ann, Uncle Walter
and the Girls

Jeffrey,

We wish you well upon your graduation and beyond and if we could we would wave a magic wand that would bring you all of life's happiness.

Remember to shoot for the moon and even if you miss, you'll land among the stars.

Love,
Aunt Jo Ann, Uncle Walter
and the Girls

Dear Jeffrey,

As graduation falls upon us we are filled with love and pride. We always knew that you could accomplish anything that you set your mind to due to your perseverance and determination to succeed. You've worked hard and you passed the test. It has been a long journey but you never quit, you should be extremely proud of your accomplishments.

As you continue on with your life's journey remember you are not alone. You will always have family and friends to support you. Keep your head held high and your eyes focused on your goals. Remember the future is what you make of it and it is without limits.

Love always,
Mom and Dad

Jeffrey,

"May the good life be with you down every road you roam,
and may sunshine and happiness surround you when you're far from home.
May you grow to be proud, dignified, and true,
and do unto others as you'd have done to you.
Be courageous and be brave,
and in my heart you'll always stay
Forever Young..."

I couldn't have asked for a better little brother!
Love always, Rachel

Dear Ashley and Spenser,

Our Wish for You
When you are lonely, we wish you love.
When you are down, we wish you joy.
When you are troubled, we wish you peace.
When things are complicated, we wish you simple beauty.
When things are chaotic, we wish you inner silence.
When things look empty, we wish you hope.

May you find happiness and success in all your future endeavors.

Love always,
Peggy, Jim, Rachel and Jeffrey

We cannot believe where the time has gone. It doesn't seem that long ago that we were having our first class meeting planning fund raisers, talking about your class dues, and thinking to ourselves how this four year journey is going to be quite a challenge.

Well, this chapter of your life is complete, and we hope that you are able to live a full and healthy life.

Remember when you are setting your goals in life to reach for the furthest planet away - because if you don't succeed, being among the stars will not be that bad.

Believe in yourselves.
Good Luck. Go Gaels.

Mr. Gannon and Mr. Meyer

Class of 2006

As you set out on the road to your future, continue to always grow with your gifts. Be open to learn from others. Be generous and share the richness of yourself. Here, at Clinton High School, we're a better place because you have passed through.

Mr. Hastings and Mrs. Kach

Thank you to Lauren and Shannon for their extra effort, to Chris, Alex, Brendon, Spenser, Katie, Jess, Monique, Dave, Riley and Lisa. I underestimated your abilities, but you proved yourself to be one of my most impressive staffs. Your dedication and devotion have created a memory that will remain with you for your entire life. I know that success will be a large part of your life.
